LIBRARY SCHOOL NOTES

OCTOBER 1913

Beginning with October the school will print each month a leaflet of "Library School Notes" to provide its graduates and former students with the current news of school happenings.

FACULTY

The Library School Faculty began to assemble September 2. Miss Sutliff spent the greater part of September in the business branch of the Newark Public Library, making the acquaintance of the special reference collection there and observing the type of work done. Miss Anna M. Hardy, a senior, has been added to the faculty as teacher's assistant in place of Miss Beaman, resigned.

Miss Rose attended the New York State meeting at Lake George.

PROBATIONERS

An examination for probationers was given on Monday, September 22.

Fifty-eight persons applied for the examinations.

Thirty-eight persons presented themselves, and only five passed.

PRACTICE

Preliminary practice for those juniors who had had no library experience began on Monday, September 15.

After organization and a brief greeting from the Director, the junior students began work on the morning of the 29th.

SUMMER WORK

Miss Greene of last year's junior class has been addressing Teachers' institutes in Michigan on the subject of children's reading. Miss Hitt has been organizing the State Normal School Library at Santa Barbara, California, and Miss Newberry has conducted a library course for teachers at the State Normal School, Marquette, Michigan.

Miss Pritchard spent the summer in reorganizing the High School library at White Plains, and Miss Ewing in reorganizing the library of Bethany College, West Va.
